Product Overview

AI native model that eliminates tedious admin work by automatically collecting communication data.

DESCRIPTION

- Problem: Professional services struggle to scale due to time wasted from digging through communication data to find the context of a problem associated with a project
- Status Quo: Project managers are currently manually going through emails, chats, or documents to understand problems with client or projects
- Process: Safia is a generative AI model that collects and delivers insight from unstructured data found within communication platforms like Google/Outlook email, Slack and MS Teams to deliver project insight to project managers
- Features:
  - Generative AI chatbot built within the dashboard
  - Dashboard card customization
  - Filtered data collection through CC on email
- Differentiator: Scalafai's generative AI Safia automates the admin work required of project managers to understand project context by extracting data from communication platforms

PRODUCT DASHBOARD

GENERATIVE AI CHAT

- Generative AI model chatbot used for Project insight built within the dashboard
- Model agnostic design[1]
- LangChain and Langflow for agent workflows
- Hosted on AWS

Source: Hypermode

1) Model agnostic means that their AI system should work with any model. It allows you to integrate new models as they emerge. Also it can process different types of data, including text, images, and code.
